

Mandatory Institutions
Face-to-face excursions	Facilitated virtual tours
Parliament House Schools must participate in: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - A one hour comprehensive guided tour, including the House of Representatives and Senate chambers and parliamentary exhibits. And where possible: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - A one hour Parliamentary Education Office (PEO) hands-on education program -Minimum of 15 students required and - A half hour break in the Queen’s Terrace Gallery with the opportunity to meet your member of parliament dependent on their availability. Group size maximum 50 students + 5 adults See: peo.gov.au/book-a-program/parliament-house-program/	Parliament House Connect with parliamentary experts through Parliamentary Insider – the PEO’s free video conferencing program. Parliamentary Insider is a curriculum aligned program that explores the function and significance of Australia’s democratic system of government. It does this through investigating: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • How laws are made through Parliament • The responsibilities of representatives • The formation of government • How government is kept accountable. Program topics can be adapted to suit your area of focus. See: peo.gov.au/book-a-program/video-conferencing-program/ Connect: peovideoconferencing@aph.gov.au
Museum of Australian Democracy (MoAD) – Schools can select and book a one hour facilitated learning program. Designed for primary and secondary students; they are curriculum aligned, and explore and interpret the stories of Australia’s democracy in the very place where decisions that shaped our nation were made. Group sizes for the different programs differ and range from a maximum of 30 to 50 students See: www.moadoph.gov.au/learning/teachers/school-programs/	MoAD – Engage with Australia’s democracy in one of our facilitated digital excursions. Designed for primary and secondary students; they are curriculum aligned, interactive, and explore the special stories and secret spaces in the building. Three different programs are available: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Democracy, Media and Me - Rights and Freedoms - It’s My Right Isn’t It See: www.moadoph.gov.au/learning/teachers/digital-excursions/
National Electoral Education Centre (NEEC) – 60 minute education program Group size maximum 45 primary students or 40 secondary students See: education.aec.gov.au/visit-us/	NEEC - Schools can book a Get Voting pack be sent to their school. The pack includes everything required to run a fair and fun school election. See: education.aec.gov.au/getvoting/
The Australian War Memorial Schools can select: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - a facilitated Education program only. - no self guided visits in the galleries 	Not available

- limited availability for School Wreath Laying Ceremony program, or attendance at Last Post Ceremony Group size maximum 60 students See: www.awm.gov.au/visit/schools/programs
--	--

Alternative Institutions
Face-to-face excursions	Facilitated virtual tours
National Museum of Australia - schools must participate in one of the following education programs: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Meet the People (max 70 students) - Making a Nation (max 30 students*) - A living Culture (max 30 students*) - Indigenous Rights and Freedom (max 30 students*) - #Endeavour Voyage: The Untold Stories of Cook and the First Australians - please note this is a temporary exhibition (max 30 students*) *Two groups can run concurrently with these tours # This is the only tour being offered during COVID-19 restrictions. See: www.nma.gov.au/visit-us/school-visits	National Museum of Australia – schools may opt for one of the following digital excursions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The Australian Nation - Fight for Indigenous Rights See nma.gov.au/learn/school-programs/digital-outreach
National Gallery of Australia* – schools can participate in a one hour program titled Belonging: Stories of Australian Art. Through the works of art, students investigate themes of migration, occupation, activism and native title, challenging the notion of terra nullius and celebrating the resilience of Indigenous cultures, and the connections between art, people and Country. Group size minimum 5 and maximum 60 students See: https://nga.gov.au/learn/teachers/planvisit.cfm	National Gallery of Australia* – schools can participate in a 45 minute online version of Belonging: Stories of Australian Art. Group size 30 students per session, however this can be made up of several class groups. See: https://nga.gov.au/learn/teachers/planvisit.cfm
High Court of Australia – one hour tour of the High Court Group size maximum 50 students See: www.hcourt.gov.au/about/tour-bookings	Not available
National Archives of Australia – facilitated tour Group size max. 45 students

See: www.naa.gov.au/learn/school-visits
National Portrait Gallery - schools must participate in a civics and citizenship education program Group size maximum 45 students + 3 adults See: www.portrait.gov.au/content/education
Government House – facilitated tour Group size 10 – 100 See: www.gg.gov.au/contact
National Capital Authority* – schools must participate in at least one of the following programs or tours: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The Story of Canberra program (12 – 30 students in each tour group, three groups each hour) - How We Remember: ANZAC Parade memorials tour (max 60 students) - Our Shared Journey: Reconciliation Place tour (max 60 students) See: www.nca.gov.au/discover-and-learn/book-program

*The National Capital Authority and National Gallery of Australia were approved for inclusion as alternative institutions in early 2020 and June 2020 respectively.